

Jesus Will Fix It mid tempo, steady rhythm, call and response, joyful praise!

1. Trouble come my way, you gotta pray some time;
Trouble come my way, you gotta pray some time;

Chorus:

(But you know that My Jesus) My Jesus will fix it!
(You know that My Jesus) My Jesus will fix it!
(My Sweet Jesus) My Jesus will fix it!
(After awhile) after awhile.

2. Trouble come my way, you gotta fight some time (2x)

Repeat Chorus

3. Trouble come my way, you gotta cry some time (2x)

Repeat Chorus

4. Trouble come my way, you gotta sing some time (2x)

Repeat Chorus

Lead Me To Calvary slower tempo, traditional, meditative

1. King of my life, I crown thee now, Thine shall the glory be;
Lest I forget Thy thorn-crowned brow, Lead me to Calvary.

Chorus:

Lest I forget Gethsemane; Lest I forget Thine agony; Lest I forget Thy love for me, lead me to Calvary

2. Show me the tomb where Thou wast laid, Tenderly mourned and wept,
Angels in robes of light arrayed, Guarded thee whilst Thou slept.

Repeat Chorus

3. Let me like Mary, through the gloom, Come with a gift for Thee;
Show to me now the empty tomb, Lead me to Calvary.

Repeat Chorus

4. May I be willing, Lord to bear, Daily my cross for Thee;
Even Thy cup of grief to share, Thou has borne all for me.

Repeat Chorus

Best-selling author and ministry leader Thom S. Rainer drew an exceptional response when he posted a 500-word declaration about church membership to his daily blog. "I Am a Church Member" started a conversation about the attitudes and responsibilities of church members -- rather than the functional and theological issues -- that previous new member primers all but ignored. Thoughtfully expanded to book form, I Am a Church Member begins to remedy the outbreak of inactive or barely committed church members, addressing without apology what is expected of those who join a body of believers. When a person's attitude is consistently biblical and healthy, matters of giving, serving, and so forth will fall into place more naturally.

How to Be Thankful When Feeling Hopeless Crosswalk.com

Remember God's wonders. When I'm fighting hard against the drag of hopelessness, I remember to look up. I take the time to notice a sunrise and sunset. I pause to watch a bird in flight. I stop to marvel at the way the cobwebs float in the autumn wind. I remember how God breathes life and calls the stars by name. He split the sea and the Israelites crossed the Red Sea on dry ground rather than mucky mud. He sent Jesus so that we could know his heart for us. He makes a way because he is the light to our path. In the shadow of his wings, we sing. We remember God's wonders and we hope (Psalm 105:5). Rejoice in him. We rejoice when we glory in his name. His name reveals his character. He is Creator, Lord, Provider, and Almighty. He is The Beginning and the End, Abba

Father, our Banner, Peace, and Shepherd. Other names of God are Commander of Armies, Strength, Our Portion, Everlasting One, and Our Hope. I recall these names of God to mind and rejoice. We rejoice when we tell others about his wonderful goodness. And when we talk to someone about the Lord's steadfastness, it cheers our heart. This kind of giving thanks builds hope into our lives even in the midst of hopelessness (Psalm 105:1-3).
